

The Star, Thursday, March 7, 1974

Last Call Out For Fireman Bob

HELMETED firemen form a guard of honour today as the coffin of fireman Bob Smith, borne by colleagues, leaves the chapel at City Road Cemetery, Sheffield. Bob, a sub-officer, awarded a medal by the Queen and a commendation for bravery, spent 23 years quelling fires. He died from burns after fighting a "volcano" blast last week at a city steelworks.